The lack of brightness settings make this game hard to find anything whether its doors, keys, pictures or whatever. The sound is so low the only time you hear anything is when you get jump scared by Mr. Bear or when you walk by a TV. Achievements DO NOT work so there is that. Spent 20 minutes searching for a door that was right in front of me cause I couldn't see anything at all. Story hardly makes any sense so good luck piecing it together. The only reviews you see are from people who got the game for free which is what the game SHOULD COST. The game should be free, 100% without a doubt. Did not enjoy this game at all.
